

Disability & Inclusion

CELEBRATE WITH A FILM SCREENING EVENT

The culture around disability and inclusion is quickly shifting in Australia. The contribution of many Australians that identify as having a disability is a promising change for the future.

There are many important opportunities to celebrate inclusion throughout the year (see below) – and as always, Film Outreach has taken the heavy lifting out of running your film screening by providing Public Exhibition Licensing, marketing materials, and event ideas.

Celebrate diversity with a modern folk odyssey adventure film THE PEANUT BUTTER FALCON, starring newcomer Zack Gottsagen as Zak, a 22 year old man with Down's Syndrome, living in a retirement home with dreams of becoming a pro-wrestler. After a daring escape attempt, he meets up with Tyler (a career best performance by Shia LaBeouf). The two become unlikely travelling companions in a hilarious, heart-warming, Mark Twain style adventure of a lifetime.

WHEN

- April 2 - World Autism Day
- Disability Action Week (QLD) - TBC
- Oct 10 - World Mental Health Day
- Dec 3 - International Day of People with Disability
