

NAIDOC Week & Reconciliation Week 2021

CELEBRATE WITH A FILM SCREENING EVENT

Film Outreach Australia provides more films for Regional Australians, including curated screening programs, film festivals, and special screenings to help celebrate important community events throughout the year like Youth Week, Seniors Week, and... Reconciliation and NAIDOC Week!

Working out of Coffs Harbour, we understand regional communities and regional audiences, having founded and developed the Screenwave International Film Festival - Australia's largest regional feature film festival.

This impassioned and intimate observational documentary follows Djuwan, a 10 year old boy living in Alice Springs who is fiercely passionate about his Indigenous heritage, speaking three languages and working as a healer. However, he is known to act out in class, often attracting the attention of the welfare system and the police, Djuwan must learn to balance his state education in the post colonised Australia in which he lives and the traditions of his people that he holds dear.
